Ninive Badilescu

Ninive is the founder of UAchieve Coaching a Success Coaching business.

As a Career Success Coach Ninive works with people in transition and helps them on their way to fulfilling their dreams, reaching their goals and live their hopes. Ninive offers one-on-one coaching, workshops, teleclasses, and group coaching. Her coaching is provocative, engaging and totally client driven which makes it an ideal tool for personal and professional growth for her clients. Ninive is specialised in Career Design, Building and Implementation strategy programs as well as in programs developed to help new employees get settled in new roles, deal with any existing challenges that come with being in a new role, develop and achieve professional goals in new environments.

Ninive's clients include people from Australia, USA, UK, and Israel. She leads international teleclasses on different topics related to career transition issues, organises workshops and is a constant contributor of specialised articles for on-line article archives such as Ezine Writer, IdeaMarketer and Self-Growth.

Ninive is a Certified Professional Coach and Certified Business Coach - trained at the International Coach Academy and she holds a Bachelor Degree in Engineering. She has strong working experience in marketing, the IT industry and business management.

Her skills in working with groups have been recognised during her Teleclass Leader Certifications with Teleclass.com and Teleclass4You. She has additional studies in Business Management and Leadership and Project Management as well as being trained in the use and debriefing techniques for Full Circle Feedback - 360 Degrees Feedback Assessment.

Ninive is an active member of the International Coach Federation, International Association of Coaches and International Association of Certified Coaches.
